Licutenant Burns, accompanied by Officers Biedkeller and Woester, of the Seventh Ward, repaired to the locality, and told Kieser that he would not be arrested if he would behave himself. Burns then went into the other room stout man, succeeded in flooring them. It dirk, with which he stabbed Weester through the wrist, and Biedkeller in the left groin. They immediately gave notice to Burns that they were stabbed, when that official, finding his prisoner was about to escape, knocked him down with his mace and called on bystanders to assist him. It required the united efforts of half a dozen men to get Kieser into an express wagon; and even then, while being held down, with one hand on the spoke of the wheel he locked it for a distance of several squares. He was finally lodged in Bremen street station-house, and yesterday morning brought before Judge Lowe, where he was charged with two assaults with intent to kill. and with carrying concealed weapons. The former charges were laid over for examination on Tuesday next. On the latter charge he was sentenced to the county jail for thirty days. The officers are seriously but not dangerously wounded.

CINCINNATI, June 28, 1859. EDITOR DAILY PRESS-You are, in your paper this morning, complaining of a want or charity, because chain-gang men are dismissed without a dime to buy a loaf of bread. You err if you suppose persons from the chain-gang are not treated with the same liberal charity as others in distress. One of our kind-hearted Judges lately sent a poor woman to jall for begging a dime in the street to keep her from We had, some years since, a kind christian feeling for poor persons, who were starving, or in winter freezing in the streets from extreme poverty. The law provided that no relief should be given by the Overseers of the Poor to persons freezing or starving in the streets, unless they had resided a year in the city, without notice to leave, and go to a more christian country. When Adam Riddle was in the Legislature he got this clause in the law changed, and required aid to be given in cases of extreme distress. I regret to say, that some of the Overseers tell the poor that the old law is still in force, and some of the City Directors so declared. Is not a law a disgrace to our eity, that imprisons persons in extreme distress who beg in the street? A CITIZEN.

P. S.—One of your brother editors recently advocated the imprisonment of peor persons who were begging in the streets. To what church did be belong?

A few years since, Mr. Patrick Considine, an donated five acres of ground, on the brow of one of the Western hills overlooking the valley in which our city is located, for the purpose of furnishing a suitable site for a Catholic Theological Seminary. Other gentlemen, imbued with a like liberality, contributed to a fund to be used in erecting a suitable chapel and edifice. Among others, Mr. John Slevin, made the munificient donation of twenty-five thousand dollars. It is with much regret that the treacherous memory of the writer precludes him from giving the proper credit to the remainder of those whose faith and liberal hearts have prompted them to contribute their means in the erection of this institution. There is one, in particular, a widow, who, from her by no means bounteous portion, gave five thousand dollars. If some one will send in her name, we will give her the proper credit.

The building soon progressed to completion, and is the most substantial and imposing collegiate structure, within our knowledge, in the State of Ohio. About three years since, it was determined by those having the Seminary in charge, to connect with it a collegiate department. Its convenience to the city, its quiet seclusion, and the adventitious aids of pure air, and healthful location, made it peculiarly adapted for that purpose, and they have now eighty pupils in the collegiate department, and twenty theological students in the Street Railroads in Baltimore -- Great Excitement. BALTIMORE, June 30 .- It having been an nounced that subscriptions for city railroad stock were to be received to-day, a large crowd gathered at the office of the Company at an early hour this morning. During the foreneon there was a great rush for the subscription book and at one o'clock about $500,000 had been subscribed. Subsequently the crowd increased and an intense excitement prevailed, there be ing a struggle on the part of some to get at ok, unmindful of the interests of those who were shead of them. A soundble ensued. during which the clerk took the book and handed it to one of the grantees; but before it was safe in the latter's hands it was selzed by a Mr. Dougherty, Warden of the Penitentiary, who had subscribed for $20,000 worth of stock, and carried off by him.

The excitement was increased to fever heat by the act, and a meeting was called to investigate the proceedings on the spot. A committee was appointed and the book recovered, Mr. disclaiming any other intention than the desire to prevent its destruction.

Many of the subscriptions are very large, half a million it is supposed being intended for Philadelphia parties.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS .- Council met at the sunl hour, President Conlan in the Chair minutes of the previous meeting read and adopted. Roll called, Messrs. Beabil, Gideon, and Foster noted absent.

Committee on Ways and Means reported that they had, this week, paid $1,718 interest on bends in New York-also, that the unsold bonds, amounting to $27,500, had been received.

On motion, the Committee was directed to place them in some safe place at the disposal of Council.

Committee on Law, reported that it was the pinion of the Attorney, that Dr. Foster was not entitled to his seat, having removed out of the ward he represents. Laid over for a full board.

The committee on Markets reported that as the present time the city is unable to repair the old market-house. Report concurred in. Sundry small claims was allowed on bill presented. Cemetery committee presented a map of

INDIANAPOLIS NEWS.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 30.

Ar Masonic Hall, last evening, we listened to well-prepared addresses by Mesers. Milner, Binford and Williams, graduates of the law department N. W. C. University. Diplomas were awarded to each. Judge Perkins, Dean of the Faculty, closed the exercises with some good remarks delivered just as the thoughts bubbled up from his mind.

FIRE.-Mr. Zimmerman's patent tar-roofing nanufactory, near Bellefontaine car-house, took fire at eleven o'clock yesterday, and was entirely consumed. Caused by the tar kettle bursting. Estimated loss about $600.

ANOTHER .- A small bakery on Washington street, opposite State House, sustained trifling injury from fire about six o'clock last evening. THE FOURTH .- The butchers met last evening to take measures for appearing on the coming Fourth, as a body in the general procession. They meet again to-night for further

RAIN .- Seven o'clock last evening, the thermometer suddenly fell ten degrees in thirty minutes, during which a heavy rain fell for fifteen minutes.

COLUMBUS NEWS.

COLUMBUS, Thursday Evening, June 30. CHILD ABDUCTED .- A little girl, daughter of Samuel Hutchinson, was abducted by its grandmother at an early hour this morning, while its parents were asleep. Although a vigilant search has been kept up all day, no trace of the whereabouts of the grand-parent and child, other than that she visited her house at about five o'clock this morning, and a note received by the father this morning that they had left to go about ten miles in the country. The little girl is about three years old, has dark bright eyes, and is very small for her age. If she has left the city with the child, it is supposed that she has gone toward Cincinnati. The grandmother is supposed to be insane. Any information by which the parents can again got possession of their child, will be thankfully received.

SOLDIERS OF 1812 .- There will be a meeting of the veterans of the war of 1812 held at the Mayor's office, on this Friday evening, to make the necessary preparations for celebrating the coming Fourth of July. The Committee of Arrangements have either forgotten that there remains any of those gallant heroes in this vicinity, or they have slighted them intentionally. Will the Committee see that they have a prominent position in the procession. The old soldiers should have a celebration of their own, since the Committee have acted so coolly towards them.

SPIRITUAL .- A gentleman from one of the outhern counties of this State, has been in this city on a spree for the last day or two, and to-day he performed the singular feat of drinking half gallon of "rifle whisky," all at one draught. He, no doubt, is preparing his system for the coming celebration on the

THE REST AND CHEAPERATURE SHOT .- John Gabriel was accidentally shot in the arm yesterday by a neighbor, who was shooting birds on his lot. No serious injury was sustained by Mr. G., and it is to be hoped that folks using fire-arms in the city will be more careful hereafter. There is an ordinance preventing the discharge of fire-arms, but it seems to be a "dead letter."

GOING HOME,-The depot was filled this morning with the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Asylums. They all seemed anxious for the trains to leave, and were highly delighted at the idea of spending the summer vacation at home. A RE-Union .- A large number of young ladies and gentlemen left on an early train this morning, for the Marble Cliff Stone Quarry, to spend the day by a social gathering, regaling themselves with singing and dancing. INSANE .-- A German man residing in South Street, is subject to fits of insanity. This morning, while laboring under one of his strange illusions, seized a hammer and struck his wife several severe blows over the head. THE Pre-Nickas.-Those in attendance at the Brush Lake pic-nic, yesterday, returned in the evening, highly delighted with their
